

TECHTRIX '17

INTO THE NEXT DIMENSION

BizTech

General Rules

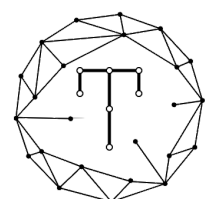

- This is a quizzing event based on the general aptitude and awareness about the business arena.
- The contest will contain two rounds.
- A team should consist of THREE members or less.
- Cross-College teams are allowed and school students over 10th standard are allowed to take part.
- Each and every student needs to bring his/her ID card which is mandatory.
- Internet and book access during the event is prohibited. If any participating entity is found indulging in unfair means then the entity will be disqualified from taking part in the event.
- 1st and 2nd round will be held online.
- The participating entity has to solve the MCQ questions online according to the rules provided.

1st Round

- There will be 30 MCQ questions which a participating entity has to solve to the best of the ability in 30 minutes.
- The questions will contain questions from technology and business field.
- The participating entity has to choose the correct option among the provided option.
- Top 10% of the participating entities will qualify for the second round based on the points scored.

2nd Round

- There will be 20 MCQ question of harder level which will require the participating entities to have deeper knowledge about the technological and business field. The time limit of this round in 30 minutes.
- The questions will contain questions from technology and business field. The participating entity has to choose the correct option among the provided option.
- The team scoring maximum in the 2nd round will be adjudged as winners.

Point System

- For every correctly marked answer in the 1st and 2nd round, the participating entity will be awarded +4 points.
- For every incorrectly marked answer in the 1st and 2nd round, the participating entity will be awarded -1 points.
- Only in case of a draw among the top two teams in the 2nd round, that the time will be considered. The team taking the least time among the top two drawn teams will be adjudged as the winner.
- In case of a dispute, the decision taken by the coordinating team will be final.

